

Creative Kindness Art Project for Corrections clients

This pre-accredited short course will provide participants with creative art making and writing skills in order to make cards that send a positive message to those who receive them.

Each term you will be guided through the following:

- Develop affirmation cards
- Basic art making media
- Develop creative writing skills
- Basic techniques in a variety of mediums
- Pathways to further study and/or employment

This free Community Work program is held via Zoom on Wednesdays @10:00AM

Participants will then have approximately 2hrs of self-paced activities to complete outside of their session.

Dates: 21st April - 23rd June 2021

Enrolment Process:

- Email lindad@taskforce.org.au with your name, contact number and postal address. Please specify in your email that you will be attending the 'Creative Kindness Program'.
- Linda will then make contact with you to complete the enrolment.

This course will contribute to Corrections Community Work hours

*This organisation does not exclude entry to individuals facing financial hardship.
We highly encourage people with a disability, Aboriginal & Torres Strait Islander people to participate.
This course is delivered with Victorian Government funding.*
